

Fabio Zeppetella American Quartet

HANDMADE

Aaron Goldberg | piano
Greg Hutchinson | drums
Matt Penman | double bass
Fabio Zeppetella | guitar

With heart and soul instilled into each of the 9 “handmade” songs (excluding track 8, composed by the legendary John Coltrane) Zeppetella presents his latest project, together with a quartet of world-renowned jazz musicians: Aaron Goldberg on piano, Greg Hutchinson on drums and Matt Penman on bass. Zeppetella, a musician with impeccable technique and great musical sensitivity, utilises a unique and personal language: the result of his constant efforts to generate new combinations capable of expressing an innovative musical identity. The Apulian guitarist elaborated a completely original sound, with influences ranging from traditional legends such as Charlie Cristian and Wes Montgomery to be-bop and hard-bop styles of the Sixties. Full of unexpected phrases, his touch on the strings is cleanly enunciated, alternating between gentle and persuasive. His main attribute lies in his original approach to interpreting music, where each sound finds its place and meaning, as in poetry.
